

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Travel Uncharted Lands with Phantom Fields in Their Debut EP NOW YOU KNOW

SOMEWHEREIN, MN (February 28, 2024) - In their six-song debut release NOW YOU KNOW, intrepid musical prospectors Phantom Fields guide us along an uncharted stream of alt-country-indie-rock rich with guitar, pedal steel, harmony and gritty songsmanship. The first of two EPs due from Phantom Fields in 2024, NOW YOU KNOW will be released across all streaming services—and available on Bandcamp—April 5th, 2024.

“Now You Know,” the first cut on the EP and their debut single to be released March 8, 2024, drops lines about suspicion, conspiracy, wonder and consequences across a cinematic gallop to the other side. Shuffling cross-country is track two, “Lightning Strikes,” a story of a series of escapes. Beautifully haunting “Judgement Day” swirls into a haze on the pavement of Las Vegas, followed by “Your Too Much” –the 2nd single, due March 22, 2024– which pushes the EP in an upward trajectory through an alliterative play on words. Reaching the heavens by song five, “Sky and Star” erupts into a Minnesota soul explosion heavy on guitar and sass; while the epic closer “Walk Up Song” bats cleanup with a tongue in cheek ode to hometown heroes.

NOW YOU KNOW was recorded and engineered with Adam Tucker in 2023 at Signaturetone Recording in Minneapolis.

ABOUT PHANTOM FIELDS

Like barkeeps crafting cocktails never before tasted, the four seasoned song writers of Phantom Fields concoct a sound that lands somewhere near the crossroads of alt country and indie rock. A shared thirst for music-making brought the four together during the darkest depths of COVID in early 2021. It became clear as they woodshedded a diverse collection of original material that they shared a passion for their craft and a knack for traversing musical genres. Their diverse influences, hi-octane rhythms, instrument swapping, and attention to each and every note result in genre-defying recordings and high wire live shows.

Ben Johnston - drums & percussion
Tate Schoeberlein - pedal steel & guitars
Aaron Smith - guitars, bass, harmonica & vocals
Steven Tacheny - guitars, bass & vocals
